Veteran's Appreciation BBQ Won The Day!

Somewhere around a hundred residents came to this event. Some brought some astonishing military vehicles. As usual, the company and food were great. There was also a chili cook off and the new flag-pole was dedicated. Looks like this will be an annual event!

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE: Happy Holidays!

The Holidays are upon us. Actually, if you believe the advertising industry they have since around the 4th of July. People are busy, families are getting together. We'll eat too much, chat too much, probably watch too many games on TV, shop too much and spend more than we planned, but mainly enjoy our friends and family while we do most of it.

We had our November Association meeting and I could tell the holidays were upon us. While we had a smaller crowd and they were really bundled up for Florida, everyone seemed to be in a Holiday mood. People were upbeat, chatty, ate too many of the good snacks and generally enjoyed each other's company. It's really too bad the rest of you weren't there. We missed you and hoped to see you and help you start your Holiday season off. But we know not everyone can make the meetings so I'll cover some of the highlights for you.

Regarding the road project, they are reportedly 3 months ahead of schedule because of the decent weather and being able to add additional crews. They are very interested in knowing about any issues with the finished road, so if you notice something please let Jim Bain know. Also, in discussions with the crews, Jim found out that they really appreciate the treats they have been getting from MWF. They think this is about the nicest neighborhood they have been in. Don't we all?

The Veterans Appreciation BBQ and Chili Cook-off was a great success. It was decided that while MWF wants to support it in some manner on an annual basis, a review of the Associations finances was in order to determine what level of support might be best. A review and report will be presented at the January Association meeting. Jim Bain is leading the review and will work with members of the Board and Party Committee in the process.

As a sideline to the Veterans event, there were 57 photos shared with Vice President Donna Levin at her request. We talked to Wayne Hebert who manages the website and we will have an area on the webpage where event photos can be posted and viewed by everyone. So continue to take those photos and share them. We would all love to see them. We'll let you know when that area is up and running.

The Association allocated funds to take out 5 dangerous trees in the park and have the stumps ground down. By the time you read this all the work will be done. This makes the park safer for all who use it and should help to reduce some of the tree debris lying around, especially in the playground area.

Elizabeth Waller will be updating the Neighbor to Neighbor section of our webpage. Her ambitious goal is to have it done by January 1st, but with the Holidays here it might take a little longer. She is looking for help in contacting the current listed businesses to make sure their information is up to date. Plus, she is always looking for more business recommendations. If you recommend someone on MWF1, she will probably contact you to see if you feel they should be in Neighbor to Neighbor. If you want to help Elizabeth with this project or have a business to recommend, contact her at: elizabeth@slowturningfarm.com.

Finally, we had a discussion about the best way to keep everyone informed of updates to our MWF Telephone Directory that is published every two years. It was decided that Dick Woodrome would keep providing updates on MWF1 and in the Newsletter. Then every 6 months, the Newsletter will publish a list of the last 6 months updates.

MWF Pet Rescue A wonderful new neighbor here in MWF has volunteered to "man" the animal rescue here in the neighborhood. I will be assisting her as needed, so feel free to call either of us when strays appear, loose horses, or you lost a pet. We are, however, in need of a large pen to accommodate these animals. We would prefer a donated cage to erect on her property, but will accept putting the animals in your cage on your property until the owners are located, or other measures taken. Please call Stephanie (Stevie) Gordon at 352-566-8527 or Sandy Mollberg 352-861-9622.

Recycle Your Aluminum Cans

To Benefit MWFPOA Treasury

Two of our neighborhood young ladies have volunteered to take over the collection.

Thank you Rachael and Lillian Workman!

The recycle point for your aluminum cans is at the front entrance to the Friendship Park on Lake View Drive East. Barrels are provided for that purpose. Cans that are rinsed, tab tops removed and crushed are our favorites. Tab tops may go to any charity you know or bring them to meetings to go to Shands Juvenile Kidney foundation.

MWF Roads Status Report – Jim Bain bain2@cfl.rr.com 352-237-9672

Wow! As I write this, our road project is moving along very quickly. To date, the crews have reclaimed over 15 miles of the 17.5 miles of road in MWF. They have paved over half of the neighborhood. They are over 3 months ahead of schedule and hope to be substantially complete by the end of December.

Again, I want to thank those folks who have volunteered to deliver treats to the workers on alternating Fridays. This simple gesture continues to strengthen a great relationship between the crews and our residents. If you have questions, please submit them to mwfroads@gmail.com. I'll be happy to do my best to find the answers.

Respectfully,
Jim Bain (our liaison person with the County regarding our road improvements.)

Meadow Wood Treasures by Bill Lammers

A few years ago, when I was recovering from one of my "procedures" my kids said I needed to get out of the house so they got me a metal detector. So out I went with the detector in one hand and a digger in the other. It was not long before the unit started beeping like crazy and a digging I went. The first treasure I found was an old rusty nail. I thought to my self, it's not the item I found but the thrill of finding something that was buried for maybe 100 years, maybe more. From then on it has been treasure after treasure and a yard that looks like a bad golfer lived here.

Since my first find I have found many old mining tools, a step for buckboard, parts of a cast iron stove, brass parts to a harmonica, a brass buckle clasp, 28 cents and a box full of old nails, wire and mystery items. At one time I searched another property near where the old Fort Hook was located and found many era related items. I even dug up some old glass and pottery items while digging for metal objects. These items were given to the Silver River Museum.

Remember it's not what you find but the thrill of finding something that may have been buried for years, so get yourself a metal detector and search your yard, you to might find the missing gold bars, like mine, rumored to be buried somewhere here in Meadow Wood.

Share The Road Safely– Dave Kane

Holy Moley! Did you feel that? I didn't either. I didn't feel the bumps, dips and pot-holes that were on the roads a short time ago. Doesn't it feel good? Heck, I thought Deb had taken the truck and had new soft ride shocks put on it without my knowing. I really like the way the roads are being completed, but I do have one little complaint. I can't feel the seat of my pants any more.

What I mean is, on the old road, I could pretty much tell by the bumps and dips how fast I was going. I could feel it in the seat of my pants. So could you, I'll bet. Most of us became pretty good at regulating our speed in MWF by the seat of our pants and the way stuff rattled around in our rigs. Now however, the roads are smooth as silk. Nothing rattles. I have to admit I looked down at the old speedometer the other day and I was cruising along about 35 or so in MWF. I never would have guessed, since I usually try to keep it a little shy of 30 so I don't get surprised around one of our curves by someone or something on the roads.

So now I have to watch my speedometer a little more until the calluses on my fanny thin a little and then I can get back to feeling the seat of my pants again. So what about you? Are you still driving by the seat of your pants or have you been looking at your speedometer more lately?

I guess I could take up roller blades now that the roads are so nice. That way I know I'd feel the seat of my pants – a lot!

Please slow down!

.....and Stay Safe! (Those two things are inextricably related, aren't they? The NL editor's observation.)

President's Message continued..... This page can then be printed out, for those who read the Newsletter electronically, or removed from the delivered Newsletter and added to your Directory. This will help keep everyone updated on our newest residents.

In our continuing efforts to recognize those who do good within Meadow Wood Farms, Elizabeth Waller wanted to recognize Warren and Donna Levin. They undertook the task of organizing the treats for the road crews. It has been highly successful and very well received. Thank you Donna and Warren for your efforts, and to all those who have provided treats as well.

Further, Elizabeth Waller wanted to recognize the MWF Angels. This is a loose knit band of do-gooders who are out and about helping their neighbors in MWF. This group gives of their free time to help neighbors in need. If you know of a neighbor in need, contact Jim Bain or Elizabeth Waller to see if the Angels might be able to help. Thank you Angels.

Those are your meeting highlights. Our upcoming meetings are the Executive Board meetings on December 11th and January 8th and our Association meeting on January 15th. We hope to see you there.

Deb and I want to wish everyone a Merry Christmas and Happy New Year. We have had a lot to be thankful for this past year and Meadow Wood Farms and the fine people residing here are a large part of what we are thankful for. Thank you everyone and enjoy your holidays.

Stay Safe,

Veterans Appreciation BBQ & Chili Cook-Off

I would like to take a moment and thank you for your support for the Veteran's Appreciation BBQ and Chili Cook-off. If you were there you know it was a rousing success. We had 102 people who committed to being there last night and by the size of the turnout we were not far from that number. Of the 102, 30 were Veterans. Thank you for coming, your service and trusting that Meadow Wood Farms would show the appropriate support. I have no doubt we have now laid the ground work, or planted the seed, that will make this an annual event.

I cannot begin to list all the folks who helped make this the success it was without missing someone so please know that you are and were appreciated for your work and efforts. From helping sell tickets, to offering insightful advice, helping set up and take down, even buying the tickets, making chili, arranging for and bringing vintage military vehicles, it is all these things that make each event we have a success. Meadow Wood Farms, you really know how to make things happen and you show it again and again.

I had several people ask about the flag pole. I have the same flag pole we placed in the park and know of at least 2 other folks who have one as well. We are all happy with the purchase. Here is the website for the organization we purchased it from: <http://usvetsnetwork.org/>

So, Meadow Wood Farms, once again "Thank You".

Welcome to the new MWF Newsletter Editor

If there's one sure way to know what's going on in Meadow Wood Farms, it's to take on the job of Newsletter Editor. I'm at the end of my 3 year stint in the position and have learned a lot about our community. As many of us have recognized, we have a great group of residents. As individuals and groups they step up to add to the quality of life for all of us. I believe that this is due, in no small part, to the various ways we have of communicating with each other. The meetings, the newsletter, the website and meadowwoodfarms1 online, are the links we have to organize and pool our talents, our energy, our activities and our commitment to each other and the community as a whole.

Can you imagine what it would be like without those resources? Neither can I. Fortunately, there is always someone to come along and take on the various responsibilities that are necessary to keep us informed, collected and to therefor prosper as a vibrant community. To all those who have come before, we owe you and to all those who will come after.....we need you.

I want to thank Pat Anderson, the previous editor, for making the transition as easy as possible. Jessica St.Hilaire was an enormous help as guest editor this summer. She didn't skip a beat and made some improvements. All this while maintaining her business of creating the most enchanting succulent plant decorations. She actually inspired me to try my hand at it, which I then used as a basis for computer graphic "paintings". You see, one thing leads to another.

Dick Woodrome has been indispensable. He keeps track of the ad money, picks up the printed copies and organizes the distribution. I couldn't have done it without him. The board reviews the drafts to make sure there are no goofs and Elizabeth Waller is the best proof reader you could have. Wayne Hebert posts the final version on our website, so it is always available in a timely manner.

Then there are all of YOU, who contribute ideas, articles, photos and ADS. I cannot stress enough the value you bring to the issues. Your participation is vital. Please keep it up.

Lisamarie Lucia has offered to carry on in my place. She too has a thriving business—"Tasti bites & Tea Parties". That's the other thing I learned in this job. We have a plethora of talented people in our midst. I hope Lisamarie will continue to feature our neighbors in upcoming issues. The most viable way you can help her is to get your stuff in by the deadline. It is critical to know what, how much and where it should be positioned before you can start to work on inserting it. Having to move things around, or squeeze stuff in at the last minute is extremely time consuming and frustrating. We want Lisa Marie to enjoy her job and stay with us a long time, don't we?

Welcome Lisamarie Lucia and we all thank you in advance.

Jodie Gebhard
