Ahhh...It's October!

I do believe that October is the most eagerly anticipated month in the calendar for us Central Floridians. At last we can breathe outside, plan activities for that “dead zone” between 10 am and 4 pm, and change clothes only once a day. No more “air you can wear” once the tenth month of the year arrives. It feels like everything perks up and starts to take on a more reasonable rhythm and flow. Too bad the days are getting shorter—but hey, you can't have everything!

Of course, for us here in Meadow Wood Farms, the highlight of October is Dancing Under the Stars, our adult dinner dance celebration. This year it will be held on Saturday, October 8th, and there are many more details elsewhere in the newsletter. My only comment is that I am cutting my beach vacation short in order to be there. It's that much fun!

October is also when the calendar starts to overflow with fun and interesting things to do elsewhere in our area. Those of you who get the daily newspaper have probably already seen what lies in store for the month, but I thought I might highlight a few annual events that I have always enjoyed.

The Marion County Master Gardeners Fall Plant Sale will be held this year on Saturday, October 1st at the Southeastern Livestock Pavilion. Although it will probably be past by the time you read your newsletter, it's worth noting it for next year. They have a HUGE variety of annuals, perennials, shrubs, vines and trees for sale, and the expert advice is free! I am no gardener, but cooler October weather does get me thinking about herbs, vegetables, and colorful accent plants now that I can stand being outside again. Gardening in Florida is different from in many other parts of the country, which is why the Master Gardeners are an invaluable resource to prevent costly and heartbreaking mistakes. Believe me, I have been there.

I am a huge art and craft enthusiast, and my holiday shopping season always kicks off with a visit to the Fine Arts for Ocala (FAFO) Arts Festival in downtown Ocala. This year the festival, which features hundreds of fine artists and master craftsmen, will be held Saturday and Sunday, October 22-23. In addition to the artist booths, there is always live entertainment and great food. If you are a real craft junkie (like me), there is an even larger, nationally acclaimed art festival in downtown Gainesville on November 5th and 6th.

Finally, for several years I have had the opportunity to attend the Jazz Up Dunnellon Music Festival, held in downtown Dunnellon from 3 pm into the evening on Saturday, October 22nd. It's major fun to stroll around town, beer in hand, and listen to about a dozen local and regional bands rocking tunes of all kinds. You will definitely see some neighbors there!

So enjoy the Best Month of the Year and start to live like a human again!

This year's premier family event, the 3rd Annual Veteran's BBQ and Chili Cook-Off is scheduled for Saturday afternoon, November 12 from 3:00 pm until 6:00 pm. (See flyer elsew here in Newsletter) Once again we have requested the vintage military vehicles be present to help honor our veterans. We are doing things a little different this year. Not only are our Veterans and Active Service Members being honored, but we are also honoring our First Responders, past and present.

All of those being honored get a complementary meal to thank them for their service and for helping keep America and the communities they have served safe. Meals for others are only $5 each. Bring your children or grandchildren so they can see the vehicles and learn a little history from those who have served.

It is important we get a count of those attending so we can plan for the main course of the meal. This year we are going to provide pulled pork as our main course, with buns and water and iced tea. Once again we are asking our wonderful neighborhood cooks to contribute something, either a side dish or a dessert to help make the event another great success. To obtain your tickets, please contact me directly at 509-7754, or by email and I'll bring them to you. You can also pick them up at line dancing on Monday or Thursday. Last year we had almost 80 folks attend and I know Meadow Wood Farms families can match that this year.

If you are interested in helping me with the tickets, or organizing the Chili Cook-Off, please contact me. As many of you know, I can use all the help I can get. If you have an idea on how to make the event even better, I'd love to hear your ideas.

Recycle Your Aluminum Cans

To Benefit MWFPOA Treasury

Two of our neighborhood young ladies have volunteered to take over the collection.

Thank you Rachael and Lillian Workman!

The recycle point for your aluminum cans is at the front entrance to the Friendship Park on Lake View Drive East. Barrels are provided for that purpose. Cans that are rinsed, tab tops removed and crushed are our favorites. Tab tops may go to any charity you know or bring them to meetings to go to Shands Juvenile Kidney foundation.

ALUMINUM CANS ONLY PLEASE!

Hi Everyone,

Just a small reminder, if you are leaving town for a bit, please let the delivery people know so they don't stuff your newsletters into the tube. Also, when you take a walk to your mailbox, just check to make sure your tube is empty...we are finding a lot of news letter still in the tubes. You can Print it off the Web Site or we can Deliver it or even Mail it to you...

Thank you, Newsletter Staff

Thank You Newsletter Delivery People

A volunteer group of your neighbors delivers your newsletter every month . This saves the association considerable mailing expense and ensures that you get your newsletter in a timely manner.

A BIG Thank You to all our generous members who contribute delicious goodies to our meetings making them more festive and social.

NEW HORSE SHOW SERIES

Beginning September 3rd, Sichini Training, located at 4335 NW 110th Ave., will be starting their new and exciting Ocala Equestrian Show Series. This is a first rate facility under new ownership and they are inviting the public to come and participate and enjoy a show series that has something for everyone. The class list includes Halter, Showmanship, Western, English, Hunters and Trail for youth and adult riders. Haul-ins are welcome and day or overnight stalls are available. Boxed lunches are available and a BBQ is scheduled after the last class finishes. Show dates are September 3rd, October 1st, November 5th, and December 3rd. The Dressage Show Series starts on October 9th, with haul-ins and schooling welcome on the 8th.

For more information, go to <https://www.facebook.com/OcalaEquestrianShowSeries/> or contact Debra Kane, 8 Nashua Way, (541)771-6983 for a prize list, entry form, questions, comments or... whatever. :) I met with owner Elizabeth Pizzonia, and this facility SO AWESOME, the indoor arena, footing and other amenities are too many to list, seriously... go to the facebook page and check it out, and share this info with your friends. If you can't make any of the shows, at the very least stop by and see the facility on any show date. Hope to see you there.

The World According to Frazier

I'm not sure how long I was out walking the roads of this neighborhood or exactly how that happened. I know it was really hot in the afternoons and sometimes really, really wet. Finding something to eat was a big problem and I'm not much of a hunter. One night a kind man put me inside his fence and there were nice people and food and lots of other dogs. When morning came, a lady put me into a red car and we went for a short ride. I had to "camp out" in her backyard for a few days. The kennel was lonely but she was nice to me and brought plenty of food. I even had a bath. That was pretty cool! Then she took me for another ride to a place where they poked and prodded me and even stuck me with needles. That was scary! After that adventure we took a ride back to her house and she introduced me to her dog (Jessie is bigger than me but not nearly as fast- I think she might be kind of old). The house has cats living in it too – I think there are only 3, but they seem to be everywhere. She told me not to chase them because they have weapons on their feet – I'm not taking any chances. So now I've been here since 9/11 and I'm feeling much better, but keep wondering what's next?

Comments from "the lady with the red car":

Frazier is apparently a Jack Russell terrier somewhere between 1-2 years old. He weighs 15 lb. He is an intact male at this point. He is predominantly white with tan patches. Judging by calls I had gotten re: sightings early in September, he evidently was in our neighborhood for at least a week prior to "capture". He now has had rabies vaccine, been wormed, received Trifexis, and has been given a flea bath. Considering the high activity reputation of this breed, I've been surprised by his ability to adapt to a "mellow" lifestyle. Although he is always "ready to go" when the opportunity presents, he also readily finds a spot to lie down and doze or just watch Jessie sleep. He likes stuffed toys, but does not "help himself". He does not get up on the furniture. He is housebroken. He has shown no aggression toward cats or other dogs. He and Jessie eat their meals side by side without problems. Any negatives? Possibly the fact that he bonds so quickly to humans and wants to be near you. Although he rarely barks, he will cry for a short time if deliberately separated. Being a terrier, he does jump when excited. And of course, he needs to be neutered. This is a smart little boy who has quickly learned to respond to commands – and I'm only half trying at this point. He would probably be a great candidate for agility training. He is posted on the MWF emails, the Pet Harbor found dog site, and Ocala4Sale Lost and Found. I have gotten no responses and doubt that I will. This dog has had a journey which he can't explain to us – but he remains loving and able to trust people. He has great potential as a forever pet – does anyone feel he would fit into their family? Or call me if you would like to just "check him out" without obligation.

SOUVENIR

Antionette B. Kimball

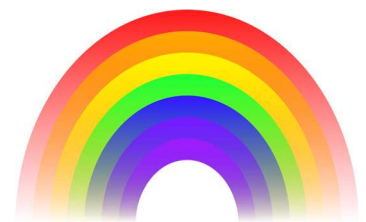

Because I took time to be nice
To an old lady,
She gave me a trinket she'd made.
T'was a long time ago, Oh, I don't know
What's happened to her since.

But once in a while I give a little smile
When I look at the strange gift from her.
And it makes me feel good
To remember that once
I took time out to share a little kindness.

WHERE IS THE RAINBOW ?

Richard and I were at his desk, facing out of the front window. It was raining and all of a sudden the sun came barreling out. I said, "There must be a rainbow," and we starting looking up at the sky through the trees in the front yard. We couldn't see any rainbow. Then Richard turned his head and said, "There it is," – right in front of us! It was about 10 feet off the ground and about 10 feet in front of the window! (No, no picture, and no pot of gold!) But it sure felt amazing to see it right in front of us.

A SMALL TIP FROM A CERT MEMBER - SOLAR LIGHTS
Toni Kimball

Ready for a black-out or a brown-out?
Just check right outside your house!! Do you have some of the inexpensive
solar lights for landscaping? They make a great addition to the inside of your house if the lights go out!! They may light your house all night!
Inexpensive
when you can get them for $2 - $3 each. Some are brighter than others. If the battery (or cell) goes dead, even it can be replaced! Bring them in at night,
take them back out during the day. Even on a cloudy day, they may recharge
a m e w h a t. You might want to try this before a necessary time!
